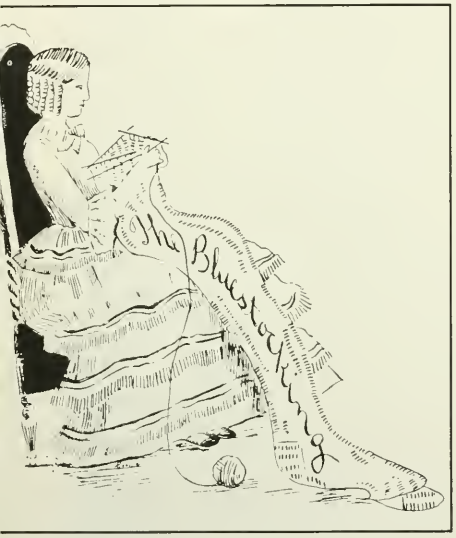
MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE

On the pillars by the front steps Caesar and Pompey appeared to watch over the institution. A later generation has turned these dignified sentries into "Ham" and "Jam." Ham and Jam are still a source of speculation. Current tradition says that they are "cadets who came to see their dates but had to wait too long."



Often, the question has been asked as to the origin of the word "Bluestocking." This is one explanation of the name.

"In the late eighteenth century it was the fashion to hold soirees at which women were permitted to participate in conversation with literary and ingenious men. These societies came to be known as Blue Stocking Clubs because one of the most eminent members of these clubs, Mr. Benjamin Stillingfleet, wore blue worsted stockings rather than the more common black silk stockings of that day.

Such was the excellence of his conversation and so great a loss was his absence felt to be that it became the fashion to say when he was not present, 'We can do nothing without the bluestockings.' The term has come into common and popular use to denote women who show a taste for learning and an inclination toward intellectual pastimes."

In 1927, appeared the Peanut Party, to relieve the January slump following the Christmas holidays and preceding examinations. Students drew names enclosed in peanut shells and did anonymous kindnesses for their "peanuts." At the end of two weeks there was a party, and the Peanuts were revealed. The girls must have liked the idea, as they have perpetuated it into the present.

To those students who have come to Mary Baldwin since the days of Miss Mary Julia Baldwin these figures are likewise familiar through story and legend. Uncle Chess was the school mail carrier. Another familiar figure of those old days was Mr. Thompson, the night watchman. He always carried a lantern in making his rounds at night. He even carried a pistol in his coat pocket, and when he saw any trespasser on the grounds he would call out, "Wait, my friend, until I shoot you." Miss Baldwin loved pets. Bruno, a very large dog, was her particular pet. Miss Baldwin's parrot accompanied her at meals, sitting on the back of her chair: the guardian, who yelled, "Who's that! Who's that!" to the abject terror of the approaching VMI cadet.

The use of Miss Baldwin's coat of arms is a priceless heritage to the honored school which bears her name. The Baldwin coat of arms is described as found in St. Leonard's Chapel: Three oak leaves slipped unacorned, with it is the usual crest of the Baldwins of that vicinity, 'a squirrel sejant,' or a squirrel sitting, colored in gold. It is generally, or always represented as holding a 'sprig of hazel,' or oak, sometimes acorned or unacorned. The Arms granted in 1662 to Edward Baldwin, of Wilton, are described as 'argent a chevron ermine, between three oak branches proper.'

In 1912, fire drills had been instituted.

In 1900, Memorial Hall was built. The cost of this building was $12,820.78.

In 1910, the general board and tuition fee was raised to $300 with a fee of $60 for collegiate day pupils.

In the first college commencement, there was only one graduate, Miss Elsie Jones. In the procession the entire college student body appeared in cap and gown along with faculty and trustees.

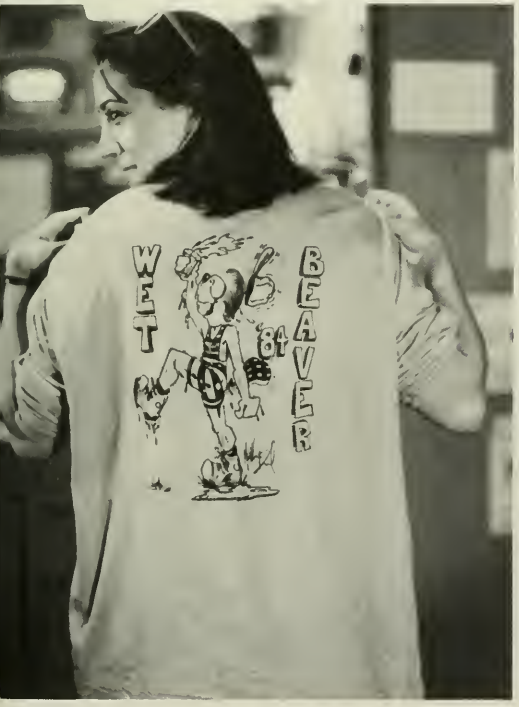
We search for
An impossible dream
Only to find it
With us all along



At times we laugh
Sometimes
We cry
It isn't always easy
But there are no regrets

As each day passes
We learn a little bit more
Of ourselves
We find a piece of soul
We never knew we had
We grow a little more
With each new experience

As the seasons change
As the years quietly pass
Only one thing
Can be certain
We will be together
Through anxious studies
Through good times
We will always
Be together

Through the years
As past becomes present
As present becomes future
The pride, love and Friendship
Will remain
With just a shade

THEATRE THEATRE THEATRE

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE THEATRE
PREMIERE PRODUCTION IN THE FLETCHER COLLINS THEATRE

THE BEGGAR'S OPERA

Macheath (Kenneth Nafziger) and Polly Peachum (Heidi Boch) embrace in one of their few moments alone.

The Beggar's Opera was chosen by Fletcher Collins for the first performance in the theatre named for him. The Collins Theatre is his in more than name, for in his thirty-one years of work with generations of Mary Baldwin Theatre students, including both members of the current theatre faculty, he established the principles upon which we stand: respect for the abilities of students to meet seemingly impossible challenges, a near-foolhardy willingness to tackle demanding work, and faith in each other and in the theatre as a social, and a civilizing, enterprise. It is to Fletch's example that we owe such success as we may have; our failures are due to inability to cut ourselves to his cloth. To Fletcher Collins and to Margaret, whose love sustains us all, these performances are dedicated.

"Mr. Theater" of Mary Baldwin

Fletcher Collins, Jr., was a management engineer with Republic Aviation before he came to Mary Baldwin in 1946.

That was just the background he needed to manage the incredible career metamorphosis which has produced "Fletch" the teacher of dramatic arts, the founder of theatres and the Virginia Alliance for the encouragement of new playwrights, the director of so many plays he had to stop counting. And, Dr. Collins, the scholar, author of three works, editor of a fourth; composer of many songs for Shakespeare's plays and for Yeats' "Words for Music, Perhaps;" translator of French drama; arranger of medieval music-dramas.

And, crusader for historic preservation as a trustee of the Woodrow Wilson Birthplace Foundation and director of Historic Staunton Foundation; collector of folk songs; farmer, father of four sons, and husband of another creative genius, Margaret Collins.

For all of these roles, Fletch has special qualities of faith and joy — faith in the ability of students and teachers, amateurs, and professionals, women and men, to tackle demanding projects, and joy, not only in the work itself, but also in doing it with others who love it, too. In the classroom Fletch proceeds upon the faith that students are equally capable with their teachers of engaging in inquiry. Thus he rarely delivers a lecture. Instead, he poses a tantalizing question — or even an outrageous one — and encourages students to think with him, rather than memorize the facts or parrot scholarly assumptions.

Fletch's alternate teaching strategy, perhaps even more successful, is the challenge in which students are invited, or coerced if necessary, to take on projects presumptuous in dimensions and implications, and to take them on not alone, but in cooperation with him.

"Would you be able to work with me on . . .?" he asks, fully owore that the challenge thus phrased is difficult to scape, and that the student will learn in the process of meeting it a variety of things in addition to the material being attacked: the savor of a terrifyingly difficult challenge met, the joy of working cooperatively on a task of some significance, and most importantly, the confidence that is the product of achievement.

Fletch's challenges demand the most: design and make umpteen Sixteenth Century courtiers' costumes; transcribe into modern notation the music of a Twelfth Century church drama and direct its first production since the Middle Ages; build a replica of a Seventeenth Century wave machine. Moreover, Fletch assumes that his women students are perfectly capable of dong anything they want to do, including operating power tools and manipulating electrical circuits. He established "equal rights" decades ago.

In his work os founder and director of theatres, Fletch has extended to the Staunton-Augusta community and beyond his willingness to join in the project, his commitment to learning while doing, and his faith in the abilities of others. It was in this creed that he founded the Oak Grove Theater in 1954.

gave it a home on his Pennyroyal Farm, and directed its early seasons. The theater continues for those who love theater work and those who enjoy the performances, and, likely as not, become involved in the work.

Fletch's understanding of the nature of theater as a shared experience has been extended from the Oak Grove by the Waynesboro Players and by Theater Wagon of Staunton of which Fletch has been president and co-producer with Magaret, since its founding in the 1960s. The Wagon has as its mission the presentation of new plays, translations, and arrangements of plays by Virginia playwrights. Under the Collins's direction, Theater Wagon has spread its creed from "The Studio" of their Beverley Street home to the Folger Shakespeare Library and the Abbey of St. Benoit-sur-Loire. The proof of its founders' faith in the ability of Virginia playwrights to produce good plays (and of a company composed of students, teachers, farmers, and engineers, among others, to present them worthily) comes in the enthusiastic response of audiences and critics wherever Theater Wagon performs.

In the books Fletch has published and the theaters he has founded, the significance lies beneath a surface glance at the numbers of copies acquired by libraries, or at the numbers and names of his successful productions and companies. His two books on medieval music-drama have guided modern productions of a form of theater that had almsot entirely left the stage for the library. His theaters in college and community, and his understanding of what theaters can be, have challenged audiences to new experiences in form and content; united love for old forms with eagerness to explore new ones; and created and developed new talent in actors, playwrights, technicians, and scholars.

Above all, Fletch has stood for, and helped others to realize, a vision not only of that uniquely social art form, the theater, but also of a life beyond the theater, composed of an ever-changing balance of the antique and the new, work and rest, laughter and music and wine and sang, well-contrived buildings and uncantrived groves, art and craft, and books and friends.

Rita Hundley

Ranked No. 1 Regionally; Eyes No. 1 National Ranking

Mary Baldwin College sophomore Rita Hundley has a goal . . . to be the best female kick fighter in the country.

Hundley has climbed through regional ranks to No. 1, but so far, she said she feels more national exposure is needed before she will have a shot at being No. 1 in the country.

At first glance, you would never guess Hundley is a gifted artist in the lightweight division of Tae Kwon Do, a form of the martial arts which stresses kicking.

But exceptionally quick reflexes and the dedication it takes to be a winner in any sport has propelled the slender MBC sophomore to the sportlight in the majority of her fights.

"It takes a sponsor to get the exposure you need as it costs at least $200 to compete in a meet. Hopefully, I can find one close to my home in the Washington, D.C. area," Hundley said.

Hundley and her twin brother, Ralph, took up the sport as youngsters but Rita is the one who has followed the sport. "Ralph serves as my cornerman. He tells me what to do and keeps the score so we know where we stand in a fight," Hundley said.

Just to see her warm up makes you shudder.

Hundley has the art of being able to hang in the air almost indefinitely it seems when she is fighting and admits that if you lose concentration in a fight you are in trouble.

She has a big one coming up Nov. 13 at Largo, MD, where Steve "Nasty" Anderson is on the card. "He is in the Hall of Fame," she said.

Hundley is eyeing a possible rematch at Largo with Tanya Jackson who dealt her one of her losses this summer.

Turning to dedication, Hundley said: "It takes over an hour a day to do warm-ups and our practice routine."

Ralph keeps after me about my concentration in a match. It can hinder you when you are not able to hit a target. You can make light contact but you can't draw blood. There are over 100 moves which can be made in a fight," Rita said.

Decisions on which moves to use in a fight have to be made in split-second timing and often two or even three moves ahead have to be planned.

"You fight for three minutes with total points deciding the winner. You get a point for each clean hit and usually can score five points a minute. The fights can also go into overtime.

"You try to blind the vision of your opponent before making your move by trying to get your hands in his line of vision for a fraction of a second. If you can do this, you can usually score a point," Hundley said.

Hundley doesn't fight "toe-to-toe" but prefers to fight from "long distance."

"Most of the points are scored from long distance so why not plan to fight from this area?" Hundley asked.

"You just have to out-think your opponent and be aggressive. You can't lay back and wait on your opponent to make his move," she said.

How safe is the sport? "It is safe because you wear hand, chest and mouth protectors. In fact, you are practically covered from head to toe!" she said.

One of Hundley's biggest wins came in Harrisonburg where she won first in form and first in fighting.

One of the hardest fights she has had came in Manhatten where she finished second.

Kick fighting circles regard a fighter according to the trophies he has collected.

Hundley is falling in the elite class in this phase of fighting with two five-foot, seven six-foot and one eight-foot trophy.

When she first came to Staunton, she brought her eight-foot trophy with her. She had to lay it in the floor of the bus and then figure out a way to get it to Mary Baldwin.

It didn't take long for MBC students to figure out they had a nationally ranked athlete in their midst, a fighter who had won her advanced black belt and is ranked No. 1 regionally.

How long will Hundley fight? "Until the excitement wears off or maybe until I lose my zest for the sport," she said.

Hundley may transfer to another college to finish her major, possibly to Virginia Commonwealth. "I want to get my masters before leaving college," she said.

Just to see her warm up makes you shudder. She inherited tremendous flexibility from her dad. She can bend over backwards and grasp her ankles. Add this to her tremendous reflexes and most opponents find a fighter who is tough to handle.

Hundley also plans to fight more in the 1983-84 season. She indicated that her first year in college took up a lot of time. "I just wanted to keep my grades up," she said.

A cheering section is growing at MBC for Hundley. "My schoolmates motivate me. A lot of them offer to take me to the various tourneys.

"It is a good feelling when you have people behind you. I had two calls from Mary Baldwin College this summer asking if I had won.

"I didn't know how people in Staunton would react to a kick fighter but the reaction has been great," she said.

Dodson Leaves Her Mark at MBC

"I'm getting better with age. Maybe in a couple more years I can be a star!" Goldie Dodson said with a twinkle in her brown eyes.

But, if you happen to have followed Mary Baldwin College basketball, you would have discovered that Dodson was a star for the Squirrels long before this year.

A four-year starter at MBC, Dodson reached 1,000 points against Bluefield in mid-January, a milestone in her career at the Staunton school.

Since then she has pumped in 182 more points to hold the college's all-time scoring record with 1,182 points.

"I don't know what I would do without her. I just wish I had her for another year," Mary Ann Kasselman, the MBC coach, said.

"Goldie not only has been a scoring force for us, but she has a chance to become our all-time rebounder. She has 645 so far and is pulling down 11.5 a game," Kasselman said.

Add a 15.4 scoring average, and Dodson is a force for MBC opponents to reckon with on the court.

Dodson has always played forward or center in high school and college and, at 5-foot-10, she adds plenty of height to a starting five.

She tends to be a little shy when you first meet her. Maybe it is her southern background as she hails from Atlanta, Ga., but once you get to know her, you find a very serious young woman who is considering all options in the business world when she graduates from MBC this spring.

A math major, Dodson feels there is a job waiting. She indicated that she would like to locate close to Atlanta and her home.

"Maybe with insurance, a bank or even a telephone company. You have a lot of options as a math major," Dodson said.

"I got a taste of what it's like by being treasurer of the SGA."

Dodson, who started for Price High School in Atlanta in basketball and as a first baseman in softball, had a scholarship offer from Tallahassee Institute in baskeball but didn't take it.

"One of my teachers in high school was a graduate of MBC, and after talking with her, I felt it was the place for me.

"I didn't want the pressure of having to produce on the basketball court. I just wanted to play and enjoy it.

"I couldn't have chosen a better place than MBC. I have enjoyed every minute of it.

"Staunton is a small town which is very quiet. Around a large city there are just too many distractions.

"You are busy in college and have to budget your time as you have to keep your grades up. So far, I haven't had any trouble as my grades have been about the same since I enrolled at MBC," Dodson said.

What changes has Dodson seen in MBC basketball in four years?

"We now have a chance to win every time we step on the court. Early in my career that wasn't always so. But with the arrival of Coach Kasselman last year, all of this has changed. She has really helped our program," Dodson said.

When Kasselman first arrived, she found a group of basketball players who just played out of control all the time. It has taken a year of hard work, but this hard work is paying off in big dividends now as MBC is winning.

"These players, especially this year's seniors, have come a long way. They have blended with our younger players to become a team. I just wish I had these seniors one more year," Kasselman said.

When Dodson first arrived in Staunton, she didn't really know what to expect from college basketball.

Four years of experience has taught her a lot.

"I feel I have come a long way since my freshman year. Now I know the game and what it takes to win. It is just a matter of putting into practice on the court what you have learned," she said.

"I'm getting better with age."

Dodson first started eyeing a basketball when she was in the fourth grade. "We had a goal in our back yard and my brothers were playing almost every day. It didn't take me long to find out it was fun. I just haven't stopped playing since."

Will she continue playing after graduation?

"Highly unlikely. I probably will go to a gym and just play for fun," she said.

Last year, the Squirrels had to rely on Dodson for scoring and rebounding. They didn't have that much height in the middle. But the addition of transfer Nancy Perkins this year has given Kasselmann a great many options on how to play Dodson.

"By taking the scoring load off her shoulders, Goldie has been able to concentrate on other phases of the game. She has a great touch from the field. Now she can move around and not have to post up. Goldie doesn't like to stand still. She likes to be on the move," Kasselmann said.

Dodson and Kasselmann have an eye on a good showing in the ODAC tourney later this month. The first round is at the home of the team with the best record. After this, the tourney moves to the Salem Civic Center.

"That will be exciting," Dodson said.

Dodson's career may be coming to a close at MBC, but her mark will be left in the college's record books and show cases.

"It has been all too short," she added.

The Night Before Apple Day

A night of reborn tradition
A night of friendship and happiness
Memories were made
To be cherished for years to come
We wore red and green
We painted our faces and drew apples on our cheeks
We danced
We rejoiced
The MBC community became one with pride and love
Smiles
Not a frown could be seen
We gathered together
For a party
A celebration
That has carried on
For all of MBC's history
When it was over
We had nothing
but nostalgia and stained faces
Shared laughter
snapshots and a memory
that we could never forget

The comfortable attire and animated expressions worn by Lisa Byrne and Martha Smith are a classic at the Apple Day bash!

Lea, Juliette, Ansley, and Amy enjoy the festivities – you can be sure that they will continue the party in Tullidge.

mplete with flashy eye-gear and blue fingertips, Carolyn Coates and Adrienne ize respectively sparkle at the Apple Day evening bash.

Ashley Roach and Annie Ryder have good reason to smile: they helped organize the Apple Day bash.

Paige Manuel and Mary Katherine Moorman are old pros at this: this is their fourth Apple Day!

Smiles in number were evidence of another Apple Day at MBC

Celia Caldwell and Kim Dowson begin the Apple Day doings with an evening portrait at the mixer.

The Apple Day spirit fizzed in the grins of anticipation.

Apple Day attire included the addition of Mardi Gras beads for seniors Cathy Horrell and Robin Newcomb

Pam Place receives her ring under the traditional trellis.

Amy Cuomo and father show their pleasure with the evenings festivities
With Dad on her arm, Kate Campbell gives her biggest smile.

Millie Welch, Sharon Honger, Lynn Bollard and Jennifer Jones pose with their dads, capturing the enchantment of the evening
Sarah Scott watches as Dad performs his part of the ceremony

Escorts manage to steal the limelight from Dad for part of the evening

Marcia Smith agrees with the Juniors theme that "Dads are a girls best friend."
It's not only the Dads who get coverage. Tiffany Smith shares the lense with Mom

BRING BACK BIRDIE

The cast and crew of "Bring Back Birdie" hams it up after an unusual dress rehearsal.

Albert (Karen Latshaw) dances and sings "Back in Showbiz Again."
Patsy Trevillian portrays the rock star of the 1960's, Conrad Birdie.

Cowboys Tammy Shotton and Tammy Dingbaum try to interest Rose (Lisa Carr) in "a small dose of whiskey."
Tammy Calhoun steals the show as Mae.

AUDITIONS

Beth Briggs, Director, and Carolyn Coates, Stage Manager demonstrate how to liven up an audition, thus Didi Strougi Donna Cason and Kim Williams' version of "Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer."

VALENTINE'S

From the balcony, Barbara Kiley and Elizabeth Selden share their smiles with the crowded floor below.

Red paper hearts and festive smiles paired up in numbers at the Valentine's Dance.

During a lull between the dances, Denise Digs and friend take advantage of the quiet for a chat.

Glowing with smiles of reflection, Lisa Pridgen and Cyndi Weeks enjoy the party atmosphere!

Anita Sheffield, friends and foliage were captured on film during a zany moment.

Paige Goodwin and Margaret Emery found a quick moment to celebrate at the Valentine's Dance

ST. PATRICK'S

LeAnne Williamson listens in anticipation of what's to come next.
Deidre Fleming and friend are caught in a twist

Paige Pahlers is amused by Priscilla Peters' gestures towards the camera
Lisa Byrne strikes again.

Johannah Bauknight inconspicuously points out the photographer to Ann Everett and Leslie Lewis
Upon her arrival, Mary Hollowell signals for the party to begin
Susan Mitchell and Susan Crenshaw aren't shy when it comes to getting their picture taken

Yes, Mary Mason has learned the courtesy of sharing

Christmas Cheer

Goldie Dodson and Patricia Byrd toast their fourth Christmas banquet.
Evelyn Tranchin, Marilyn Hughes, and Sydney Wood share food and fun at Christmas dinner.
Luminaries brighten the campus walks, as people make their way to Christmas Cheer.

The McClung crew is, as usual, out in full force. Wonder what the Dew Drop Inn provided before-hand?

Freshmen celebrate their first Christmas dinner.

Vickie Etheridge and Sara Rhodenizer beam – their hard work and planning has pulled off another great Christmas dinner.

Spencer II enjoys the yuletide dining in the relaxation amongst friends.

CONGRATULATIONS MARGEE TROUTMAN AND THE CLASS OF 1984

CAPTAIN AND MRS. BURL TROUTMAN

Cheryl,

A daughter is a treasure —
a blessing from above,
She's laughter, warmth,
and special charm,
she's thoughtfulness and love.
A daughter brings a special joy that comes from deep inside,
And as she grows to womanhood,
she fills your heart with pride.
The love she gives so freely is a rare and lovely gift —
She brings the sunshine right indoors and gives your heart a lift.
With every year that passes,
she's dearer than before —
Through every stage,
through every age,
you love her even more!

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations, Lori, on your accomplishment in this milestone of your life. Our hopes for a bright future are accompanied by our infinite love.

Dad and Mom

LORI,
CONGRATULATIONS!

("Never say you can't.")

BEST OF LUCK
TO THE CLASS OF 1984

FROM THE BLUESTOCKING STAFF

TO: DEBI HARDIE

WE LOVE YOU,
DAD,
MOM,
JOHN,
JAY,
AND BEN

Congratulations Paige on your achievement of completing your years at Mary Baldwin. We are proud of your desire and dedication to excel in your academic work. We are also proud that you have taken time to give, to share, to care, to make friends and to be a friend. You will leave Mary Baldwin well prepared to accept the challenges of life as you find your place of contribution in a waiting world. What pleases us most is that with all you have learned and accomplished in this climb through life, you are still Paige.

Love, Dad and Mom

To Goldie — Love, Mom and Heidi

A Fool and Her Money Are Soon Parted

Be the Best of Whatever You Are

We all dream of great deeds and high positions, away from the pettiness and humdrum of ordinary life. Yet success is not occupying a lofty place or doing conspicuous work; it is being the best that is in you. Rattling around in too big a job is worse than filling a small one to overflowing. Dream, aspire by all means; but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams of the one you would like to lead. Make the most of what you have and are. Perhaps your trivial, immediate task is your one sure way of proving your mettle. Do the thing near at hand, and great things will come to your hand to be done.

If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill,
Be a scrub in the valley — but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of grass,
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass —
But the liveliest bass in the lake!

We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here
There's big work to do, and there's lesser to do,
And the task you must do is the near.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you fail —
Be the best of whatever you are!

Janet Rose Andrews: Thank you Mom, Dad, Mark, Ann, and "Pops." I love you. Special thanks to all of my professors at MBC.

Heidi Anita Bach: The highest justice has no pity. It is bright and pure and clear. Those who wish to go down may go down. Those who wish to dance with me, may dance with me. The Visit by Friedrich Duerrenmott

Roberta Lynn Baldwin: Each moment of the year has its own beauty — a picture which has never been seen before and which shall never be seen again. Ralph Waldo Emerson Love when you can Cry and when you have to . . . Be who you must That's part of the plan Await your arrival With simple survival And one day we'll all understand . . . Don Fogelberg Thanks Mom and Dad, Aim, Meglet, Brookly, B. and C. I love you all! A.J. — Thank you for being there through it all!

Lee Barnett Beal: A day in which you have not laughed is a day in which you have not lived. Unknown

Deborah Kirsten Brock: Happy are those who dream dreams and pay the price to make them come true. L. J. Cordinol Suenens . . . to be successful is to be civilized in the finest sense of that term. Education at its best is but a process toward that ultimate end. Arthur Hansen

Patricia Annette Byrd: Dear God, family, and friends, I want to express my most sincerest gratitude to you for giving me the strength, the wisdom, the guidance, and most of all, the love I needed to jump this four-year hurdle. Remember I will forever love and cherish your many blessings bestowed on me. Love, Trisha

Cecilia Wroten Caldwell: Goshen, snowbound in Richmond, VA DA VAN, popeye, CCR, Well I was just say'n puhleeze, MTV, 90 turn, Wimey, a mission to save, Eddie and David, Lauderdale, short Fat hog, DUC, Roanoke, I told you so, L, Peru, B.'s shower steps, and Wheezie! Mother and Dad — thanks for always being there! I love you both — CWC

Christine Lynn Campbell: There is only one way to achieve happiness on this terrestrial ball, And that is to have either a clear conscience, or none at all. Ogden Nosh The turtle lives 'twixt plated decks which practically conceal its sex. I think it clever of the turtle In such a fix to be so fertile Ogden Nash Mama and Daddy, You're the best ever! Love ya, Chris

Mary Joanna Campbell: You learn to study by studying, to play the lute by playing, to dance by dancing, to swim by swimming, and so you learn . . . Who think to learn in any other way deceive themselves — press forward continually, and never divert yourself by looking back. Begin as a mere apprentice, and by the dint of loving you will become a master in the art. St. Frances deSales

Robin Ann Clough: Be careful of something that's just what you want it to be. Waylon Jennings Rainbows and Unicorns . . . Daiquiris . . . "Colonel" . . . Dr. Pepper first thing in the morning . . . Listen for my phone . . . "Woofville" . . . quarters . . . You are too funny . . . Word for the week — "saponaceous" . . . The Rock Pile . . . You thief you lost it . . . Where are my keys? . . . Welcome to Miller Time . . . "What happened to your shirt, Stacy?" "Let's go to curly's, Pam!" . . . "Sherry, it's Thursday night!" . . . A special thanks to Sherry Fay, Pam, and Stacy for being there. I'll never forget ya'll.

Mary Stuart Copeland: Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm. Ralph Waldo Emerson

Emily Susan Crim: To Mom and Dad — A special thanks for all your guidance, all your support, all your trust, all your care, but most importantly all your love. I love you, Emi A penny for your thoughts. Anonymous

Nancy Gregor Crook: Life is full of great opportunities and although I have no definite goals I have no barriers or limitations. NGC

Aster Dawit: Life is something that turns on a wheel It starts in the womb and ends in the tomb if it was something that money could buy the rich would live and the ponr may die Yaltoweke Thanks to Mom, Dad, Maizie, Sally, Solomon and Ben.

Courtney Lee Dewey: Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends. Richord Bach

Denise Ruth Diggs: Contentment is a pearl of great price. Dion Ritter

Gayla Michelle Dodson: Mom — Oscar Wilde once said: I have the simplest of taste . . . I am always satisfied with the very best. Mom, you are the BEST. Thanks for EVERYTHING. Loving you forever, Gayla

Helen Elizabeth Douglas: But this same day must end that work . . . And whether we shall meet again I know not. Therefore our everlasting farewell take . . . If we do meet again, why, we shall smile; If not, why then this parting was well made. Julius Caesar: Shakespeare All my love and thanks Mom, Yvonne and Russ. I couldn't have made it without you. I love you Opie!

Elizabeth Russell Drake: There's nothin' behind me and nothin' that ties me To somethin' that might have been true yesterday. Tomorrow is open and right now it seems to be more than enough to just be here today And I don't know what the future is holdin' in store I don't know where I'm goin', I'm not sure where I've been. There's a spirit that guides me, a light that shines for me My life is worth the livin', I don't need to see the end. John Denver fTo all of my family and Richord — Thank you for coloring my life so brightly by pointing it with love.

Sherry Fay Duncan: I've always been crazy but it's kept me from going insane. Woylon Jennings Welcome to Miller time . . . Gravel pile . . . What's another test? . . . Afternoon Rides . . . camping . . . Did I get the call . . . Johnny's . . . JR's . . . sex maniac . . . Staunton in circles . . . Where's my soda? . . . Rob, Stace, VanFossen, Leigh — thanks for being there to share the wild times I'll never forget them.

Beth Michelle Durham: The pain of parting is better than a lifetime of wondering 'what if?' S.R.W.S. 5-'81 Nobody can make you feel inferior without your consent. Eleonor Roosevelt When ideas fail, words come in very handy. Goethe

Saundra Kathryn Eareckson: There were seventy-five people in the lobby and only a seven-year-old girl was finding out what it felt like to sit on a marble floor. Hugh Prather If you have one true friend you have more than your share. Thomos Fuller Mom and Dad, your love and support were always valued though I may not have shown it. Thank you for being there.

Susan Jarrell Edwards: The woods are lovely, dark, and deep But I have promises to keep And miles to go before I sleep And miles to go before I sleep. Robert Frost

Aimie Ruth Elliott: From quiet homes and first beginnings, Out to the undiscovered ends, There's nothing worth the wear of winning But the laughter and the love of friends. Hillaire Belloc, Dedicatory Ode Thanks Mom and Dad for your continuous love and support. Betsy, Mark and Mike, you mean so much to me. Sarah Scott and Muffin, I'll treasure our friendship and our times together at MBC. Brooke, my dearest and best friend, thanks for making my last two years exceptionally wonderful. I love you all!

Vickie D. Etheridge: With feet to take me where I go, With eyes to see the sunsets glow, With ears to hear what I would know, I'm blessed indeed. The world is mine. Oh, God forgive me if I whine. Anonymous Thanks Mom, Dad, friends and the Psych./Sociology Dept. for all that I am.

Deidre Nell Fleming: They conquer who believe they can. Virgil

Lori Barton Galloway: Where there's a will there's a way. Michael Scott

Kelly Rae Garcia: You're so ahead of yourself that you forfeit what you need though you can see when you're wrong you know you can't always see when you're right You've got your passion you got your pride But don't you know only fools are satisfied? Dream on but don't imagine they'll all come true. Billy Joel, "Vienna"

Cheryl Lynn Garrett: When you part from your friends, grieve not; for that which you love most about them may be clearer in their absence. Good friends are forever. Unknown To my family — Mom, Dad, Ann-Renee and Leslie, thank you for all of your love and support. I love you all.

Virginia M. Gates: What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us. Unknown

Lisa Kathryn Gavazzi: I don't know the key to success, but the key to failure is trying to please everyone. Bill Cosby

Anita Lynne Giuliani: I do believe it's time for me to fly. REO Speedwogon Many thanks to all who loved me enough to make my dreams come true. ILYM

Ann JaNell Gladwell: When I approach a child, he inspires in me two sentiments: tenderness for what he is, and respect for what he may become. Louis Pasteur

Kerri M. Glenn: Thou hast seen nothing yet? Cervantes If you are wise, laugh. Martial Thank you Mom and Dad for your immeasurable help, understanding and love. I love you!

Carol Lynn Grose: Knowledge is but the struggle for knowledge. And we are equally far from and equally near it. Ramon Sender (The Sphere)

Anne Marie Hall: Learn as if you were to live forever, Live as if you would die tomorrow. Isadore, Archbishop of Seville

Deborah Louise Hardie: Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind . . . Romans 12:2

Catherine Anne Harrell: Here is a test to find out whether or not your mission on Earth is finished: If you're still alive, it isn't! Richard Bach, Illustrations Thanks for everything Mom and Daddy! I appreciate all you've done for me. You're wonderful! Love always, Cathy

Kathy Melissa Harvey: Thanks to my Moms and Dads for your support

Mary Kathryn Hockman: Don't be dismayed at good-byes, a farewell is necessary before you can meet again, and meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends. Anonymous

Kimberly Avis Hoffman: Success is discovering your best talents, skills and abilities and applying them where they will make the most effective contribution to those around you. In the words of Longfellow, it is doing what you do well, and doing well whatever you do. W. A. Peterson

Donna Marie Hudson: Today well lived, yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope. Unknown

Deborah L. Huffman: God gave us two ends. One to think with, and one to sit on. Success depends upon which one you use the most. Heads you win, tails you lose. Unknown

Marilyn Leigh Hughes: Reaching out — the magnetic hold of the lion's mane the rough spot from the security blanket The years fly by Strong emotions Time passes quickly, Predictably. And then the pearl A small piece of a larger part. Don't drop it. Marilyn L. Hughes One must have chaos to give birth to a dancing star. Friedrich Nietzsche

Sheila Jean Kendrick: Every day life feels mightier, and what we have the power to be, more stupendous. Emily Dickinson Letters, Vol. 2

Barbara Kiley: Treat your friends as you do your pictures, and place them in the best light Jennie Jerome Churchill Mom and Dad, "Being with you is like walking on a very clear morning — definitely the sensation of belonging there." E. B White I am a super person, and don't you ever forget it. Signed, probably the most interesting person that you will ever meet

Amy Christine Lawler: Weary of myself, and sick of asking What I am, and what I ought to be At this vessel's prow I stand, which bears me Forwards, forwards, o'er the starlit sea Matthew Arnold

Amsale Legesse: I raise my eyes toward the hills Whence shall my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Psalms 121 1-2

Susan Lynnette Lehmann: What nothing earthly gives, or can destroy, The soul's calm sunshine and the heartfelt joy. Pope Thank you Mom and Dad for the joy of knowledge

Pamela Ladawn Leigh: I have a dream that one day my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character Martin Luther King You want some one on one BABY? Kelvin Newsome Sometimes you have to say what the —! Go for it Life is what you make of it Pam Leigh

Leslie Guinn Lewis: All the things we take for granted come because someone was willing to invest in the future — having faith in the results J J. Pyeatt

Elizabeth Ruth Lipes: Prepare for tomorrow — get ready. Edith Keeler So what else have I been doing, the past four years? ERL . . one to beam up jtK (SC937-0176CEC) NCC-1701 TH Life's rough when you're beautiful.

Laura Leigh Martin: The more we love our friends, the less we flatter them; it is by excusing nothing that pure love shows itself. Moliere

Diana Ruth Martinez: I take each day as it comes as the only reality and never worry about tomorrow because it's what you do today that governs your future. So you must get up and get going in a very determined way to succeed. Shelly Bruce

Virginia Bailey McBride: To live your life in your own way, to reach for the goals you have set for yourself, to be the you that you want to be . . That is success Anonymous

Leigh Anne Michael: Let me but live my life from year to year, With forward face and unreluctant soul Not hurrying to, nor turning from the goal; Not mourning for the things that disappear In the dim past, nor holding back in fear From what the future veils; but with a whole and happy heart, that pays its toll to youth and age, and travels on with cheer. Henry Van Dyke

Susan Rebecca Mitchell: If you aim at nothing, you most surely wil hit it. Jim Vu

Ruby Amelia Mize: Is this the end we struggled to obtain? Oh, for the wandering Outlaw's life again! Anne Bronte

Tamara Jane Moon: You will do foolish things, but do them with enthusiasm. Colette (1873-1954) I hate love songs when I'm not in love. B.D

Mary Katherine Moorman: Well my friends the time has come To raise the roof and have some fun Throw away the work to be done Let the music play on . Lionel Richie We made it! Best of luck Class of '84 Thank you for everything Mama and Daddy

Elizabeth Morrison Muse: If a friend has let you down, don't despair There are other friends you have, friends who care; True friends who show they like you as you are, With kindly feeling for you near or far. When you're sorrowful and tearful and are feeling blue There's a spot bright and cheerful in someone's heart for you. L. D Whitaker

Robin Gayle Newcomb: The most thoroughly wasted of all days is that on which one has not laughed. Sebastien Chomfort

Belinda Ann Norden: As long as I live I shall always be Myself — no better just me. Walter de La Mare Weasel, David and Eddie, what now? What — cc from Peru? Tech, stick race, rafting, 6-pack, MK (SFH) — Before I realize, I was individualized while trying to be accommodating? DILEMMAS? Never! . BBH . FUGLY . . . I love you all and especially my Mom and Dad — I wish everyone could have parents as "special" as you!

Kanya Onruang: Life is not a problem to be solved but a reality to be experienced. Soren Kierkegoard

Nontakorn Onruang: Guard your inner spirit more than any treasure for it is the source of life. Anonymous

Kelly J. Phelps: Each friend represents a world in us, a world possibly not born until they arrive, and it in only by this meeting that a new world is born Anais Nin (1908-1977) Mom, Dad and Pam — Thank you for your love and support and THANK GOD!

Stacy Phillippi: Country . . . Oreo . . Rob, you're trying to kill me . . . Bud . . . all day rides . . . Girls, why do I make you laugh so much? . . . Willie . Silly me . . C B . . MBC beats EMC . . Go Home Stacy . . . Rob, Sher, Pam, Goldie — thanks for 4 great years filled with many memories Best of luck to you all. I'll never forget you! To B. who helped me make it through 4 years . . . Elizabeth Marie Pridgen: Circus lights under the big top world; we all need the clowns to make us smile! Steve Perry, Journey

Edna-Louise Remington: It's the heart afraid of breaking that never learns to dance. It's the dream afraid of waking that never takes the chance. It's the one who won't be taken who cannot seem to give, and the soul afraid of dying that never learns to live. Amondo McBrown Thanx Mom, Dad and all the special people here at MBC. Have a nice life, everyone!

Sandra Kay Rhodenizer: Far away there in the sunshine — are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead. Louisa Moy Alcott

Lynley Blair Rosanelli: Fais ce que voudras. Rabelais

Elizabeth Allison Ryder: I am older now I have more than what I wanted But I wish that I had started long before I did.

Jacqueline Anne Skinner: The trouble with Trouble is that it starts out as fun. Corolyn Cootes Even Einstein flunked math. Unknown

Julie Marie Veronica Slavik: Remember the Past, Dream About the Future, but Live for Today Unknown Mama and Dad thank you for giving me wonderful opportunities I love you both dearly. "E" you have been a terrific roommate and a wonderful friend. Kable II suite try to control the Claunching Sally and Kim thanks for being there when I needed you most.

Anne Marie Smith: I shall pass through this world but once. If therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do let me do it now . . for I shall not pass this way again. Etienne de Grellet

Elizabeth Ellen Stanulis: And as, in sparkling majesty, a star Gilds the bright summit of some gloomy cloud; Brightening the half veil'd face of heaven afar; So, when dark thoughts my boding spirit shroud, Sweet Hope, celestial influence round me shed, Waving thy silver pinions o'er my head! John Keats "To Hope" Thanks Mom and Dad, I love you!

Margaret Elizabeth Stiffler: There are three things that remain, faith, hope and love — and the greatest of these is love. 1 Corinthians 13:13 If we couldn't laugh we would all go insane. Jimmy Buffet I love you Mom and thanks for everything. Bryan, I love you. MES

Erin Marie Sullivan: I have made it my earnest concern not to laugh at, not to deplore, nor to detest, but to understand, the actions of human beings. Spinoza

Jennifer Paige Tanner: To fall into a habit is to begin to cease to be. Miguel De Unomuno

Margaret Ann Troutman: It is very difficult to accept the fact that there are no guarantees in life, no guarantees that life will progress as it should or that people you care about will love you back, or even that they will treat you right. But trust in life does not mean trusting that life will always be good or that it will be free of grief and pain. It means trusting that somewhere inside yourself you can find the strength to go forth and meet what comes and, even if you meet betrayal and disappointment along the way, go forth again the very next day. Merle Shoin

Susan Story Vick: The art of being happy lies in the power of extracting happiness from common things. Henry Word Beecher

Cynthia Roxanne Weeks: The seasons are passing one by one so gather moments while you may, collect the dreams you dream today, remember. Will you remember the times of your life? Bill Lone

Lucy Burton Whittet: We cross our bridges when we come to them and burn them behind us, with nothing to show for our progress except a memory of the smell of smoke, and presumption that once our eyes watered. Guildenstern

Laura Elizabeth Wilson: Training is everything. The peach was once a bitter almond; cauliflower is nothing but cabbage with a college education. Mark Twain

Catherine DuVal Wood: And your large speeches may your deeds approve, That good effects may spring from your words of love. Thus Kent, O princes, bids you all adieu; He'll shape his old course in a country new. Shakespeore: King Lear Theresia G. Young: Bite off more than you can chew, Then chew it. Plan more than you can do, Then do it. Point your arrow at a star, Take your aim, and there you are Arrange more time than you can spare Then spare it. Take on more than you can bear, Then bear it. Plan your castle in the air, Then build a ship to take you there. Unknown Thanks Mom and Dad for all your help, love, and patience.

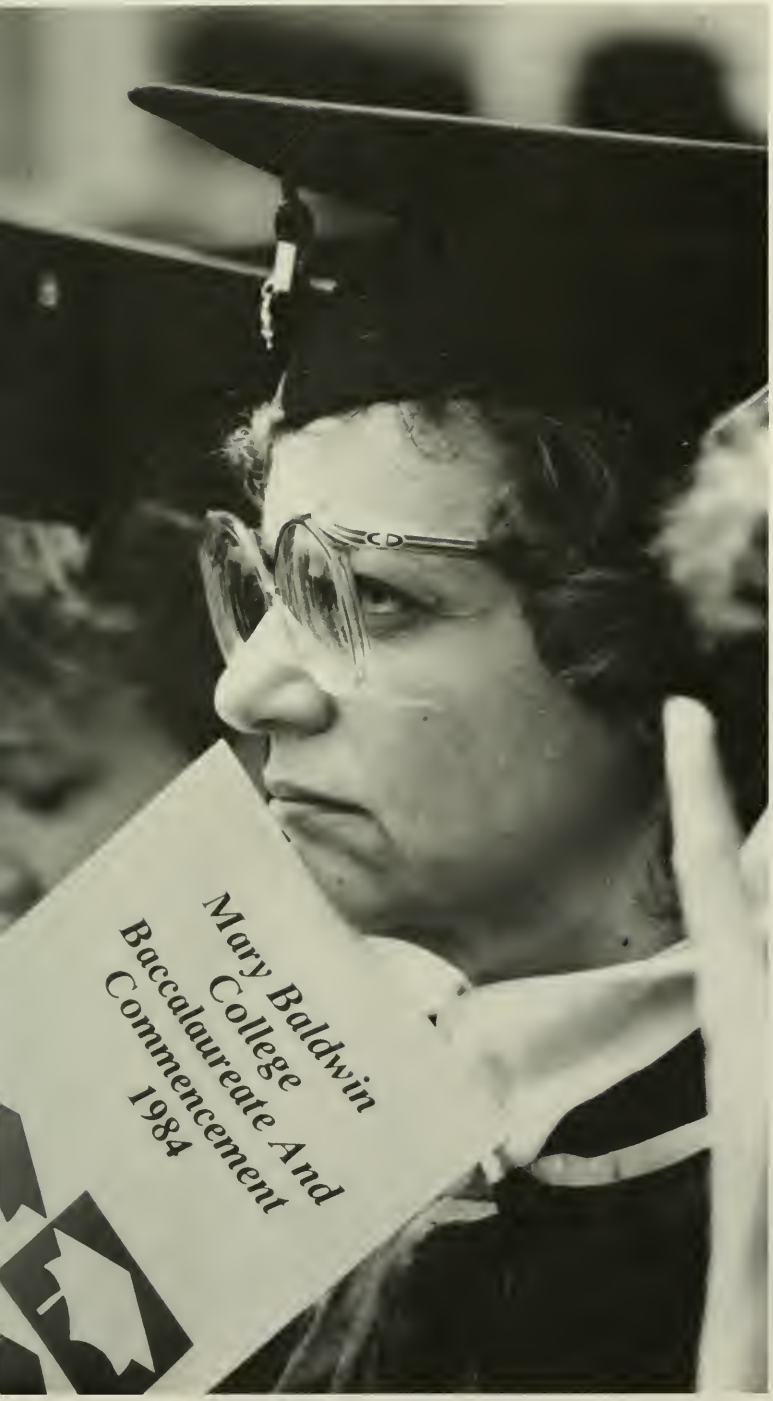
Frances Caterina Youngblood: Everything transitory is but a parable; the unattainable, here becomes an event; the indescribable here it is done; the eternal-feminine draws us to it. Goethe Faculty: Thanks for your patience and knowledge. Now I've got the smarts and faith in our educational system. Bailey Bunch: Your friendship, support, love, and sick humor have made me what I am today (thanks?). Impoverished Parents, Berta, Boo, Sharon and Vickie: You mean everything to me. I'll love you all forever. Real World: Here I come!

Kate Felton — ADP: Hitch your wagon to a star. Ralph Waldo Emerson

Wanda W. Walton — ADP: These aren't the best times; these aren't the worst times; but these are my times. I never asked for more. Janis Ian in "Restless Eyes"

Commencement Ball

COMMENCEMENT '84



Mary Baldwin
College
Baccalaureate And Commencement
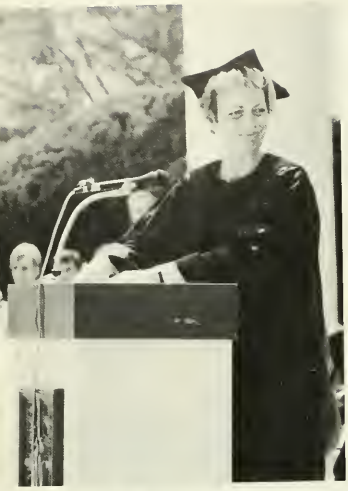
1984



Dr. Jane f. Crosthwaite, assistant professor of religion at Mt. Holyoke College, urged graduates to recognize the emptiness of vanity, telling them that "self-absorption is not creative" and advising them to "overcome the partiality of the camera and the isolation of the mirror."

Frozen smiles from old pages captured in the web of time laughing hours
and crying moments
Prisoners of memories

Old photographs reborn
a ghost,
from your past
a best friend
once lost
Now comes back

A college of dreams
of colorful faces
an unlikely family
We all are
We may go
but in our hearts
MBC will not be far

My friend
here with me now
from freshman hopes to senior dreams
we've loved, we've lived, we've shared together
Sisters through the years

One Flew Over The Bluestocking Desk

Now that the '83-'84 Bluestocking is completed, I must say the experience was a "unique" one.

My sincerest thanks to Physical Plant, Mr. Belote and Mr. Jackson for tolerating my constant inquiries and the Registrar's Office for supplying so much needed information.

Extra special thanks to Waterbug, Sunshine, Clough, Pam, Lee Lee, Ames and Anna Marie for the love, encouragement and support you shared with me. You made my four years at Baldwin worthwhile.

Lease, I couldn't have done it without you. Thanks for always being there!

Good Luck Class of '85. I hope you have a wonderful senior year.

To the graduates: Best of luck for a magnificent future.

Heidi Bach
